Article 1
Purpose of Agreement

- 1.01 The Purpose of this Agreement is to maintain harmonious and mutually beneficial relations between the City of Iqaluit as represented by the Mayor, Councillors and City Management; the Employees and the Union; to set forth certain terms and conditions of employment relating to pay, hours of work, Employee benefits, and general working conditions affecting Employees covered by this Agreement; and to ensure that all reasonable measures are provided for the safety and occupational health of the Employees.
- 1.02 The parties to this Agreement share a desire to improve the quality, to promote well-being and to increase the productivity of the Employees to the end that the residents of Iqaluit will be well and efficiently served. Accordingly, the parties are determined to establish, within the framework provided by law, an effective working relationship at all levels in which members of the Bargaining Unit are employed.

Article 2
Interpretation and Definitions

- 2.01 For the purpose of this Agreement:
- (a) Abandonment means an employee who is absent from the workplace and who has not obtained the approval of an individual designated to authorize absences at their place of work shall, after four (4) consecutive work days of such unauthorized absence, be considered to have abandoned their position and will be deemed to have resigned unless it is subsequently shown by the employee that special circumstances prevented them from reporting to work.
 - (b) "Agreement" and "Collective Agreement" mean this Collective Agreement;
 - (c) "Alliance" means the Public Service Alliance of Canada;
 - (d) "Allowance" means compensation payable to an Employee in addition to his or her regular pay and includes settlement allowance and housing allowance;

2.02 Where the masculine gender is used, it shall be considered to include the feminine gender, unless any provision of this Agreement otherwise specifies.

- 2.03 The word "may" shall be regarded as permissive and the words "shall" and "will" as imperative.

Article 3

Recognition

- 3.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for all Employees in the Bargaining Unit.

Article 4

Freedom from Discrimination

- 4.01 The Employer, the Union, and the Employees agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee by reason of race, colour, ancestry, ethnic origin, citizenship, place of origin, creed, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, pregnancy, lawful source of income, conviction for which a pardon has been granted, union membership or activity, or for exercising their rights under this Agreement.
- 4.02 The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to find alternate employment within its employ for an Employee who becomes unable to carry out his or her normal work functions as a result of a physical or mental disability arising as a result of his or her employment with the Employer.

Article 5

Other Religious Observances

- 5.01 Employees who observe different or additional spiritual holidays may, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, request annual leave, leave without pay, time in lieu, or a shift exchange in order to fulfill their religious obligations.
- 5.02 Notwithstanding clause 5.01, at the request of the Employee and at the discretion of the Employer, time off with pay may be granted to the employee in order to fulfill his or her religious obligations. The number of hours with pay so granted must be made up hour for hour within a period of two (2) months, at times agreed to by the Employer. Hours worked as a result of time off granted under this clause shall not be compensated nor should they result in any additional payments by the Employer.
- 5.03 An employee who intends to request leave or time off under this Article must give notice to the Employer as far in advance as possible but no later than four (4) weeks before the requested period of absence.

Article 6

Application

- 6.01 The provisions of this Agreement apply to the Union, the Employees, and the Employer.
- 6.02 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, part-time Employees, other than students, shall be entitled on a pro rata basis to all benefits provided under this Agreement.
- (b) Student part-time and student casual Employees shall be entitled to vacation pay equivalent to 6% of their gross earnings. No other benefits will apply and no seniority will accrue to them.
- 6.03 The Employer and the Union will each pay fifty percent (50%) of the costs associated with the printing and distribution of the Collective Agreement.
- 6.04 The Employer and the Union will each pay fifty percent (50%) of the costs associated with the translation of this Agreement into all the official languages of Nunavut. The local dialect of Inuktitut shall be utilized in this translation. The Employer and the Union will collaborate in the preparation of these translations.

Article 7

Future Legislation: Conflict of Provisions

- 7.01 Where there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and any regulation, direction or other instrument dealing with terms and conditions of employment issued by the Employer, the matter shall be referred to the Joint Union Management Committee (Article 41). In the event that a mutual resolve to the issue is still not forthcoming, the matter shall be dealt with under Article 38.04(c) and if necessary 38.04(d).
- 7.02 In the event that any law passed by Parliament or the Nunavut Legislative Assembly renders null and void or alters any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. When this occurs the Agreement shall be re-opened upon the request of either party and negotiations shall commence with a view to finding an appropriate substitute for the annulled or altered provision.

Article 8

Strikes and Lockouts

- 8.01 During the life of this Agreement, there shall be no lockout by the Employer and no interruption or impeding of work, work stoppage, strike, sit-down, slow-down, or any other interference with production by any Employee or Employees.

- 8.02 (a) No Employee shall be required to cross any picket line established by Employees engaging in a legal strike. However, an Employee who is absent from work because of his or her refusal to cross a picket line shall not be paid for such absence.
- (b) In the event of a legal strike, Emergency Services Employees shall be designated as essential workers, who shall remain on the job. It is agreed between the parties that the work performed by essential workers shall be limited to the activities necessary for the safety and security of the community served.

Article 9

Management and Direction

- 9.01 Without restricting the rights of the employees under the terms of the Agreement, the Union recognizes the right of the City to manage its affairs and operations and to direct its workforce, including the right to hire, suspend, discharge, promote, demote, discipline, lay-off or transfer any employee, and the right to determine job content.

Article 10

Employer Directives

- 10.01 The Employer shall provide the Union with a copy of all personnel directives affecting members covered by this agreement. Where the Employer proposes to issue a personnel directive which is intended to clarify the interpretation or application of the Collective Agreement, the Employer shall consult with the Union prior to issuing the directive.

Article 11

Union Access to Employer Premises

- 11.01 Upon reasonable notification, the Employer shall permit access to its work premises of an accredited representative of the Union. When visits to restricted areas are involved, the representative shall obtain the Employer's permission to enter the premises. Permission to enter the Employer's premises shall not be unreasonably denied.

Article 12

Appointment of Representatives

- 12.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint Employees as representatives. The Union will confirm the appointments in writing within five (5) working days.

Article 13

Time Off for Union Business

Arbitration Hearing (Grievance)

- 13.01 (a) The Employer will grant leave with pay to an Employee who is a party to a grievance which is before an Arbitration Board to attend the Arbitration Hearing.

Employee who acts as a Representative

- (b) Where operational requirements permit, the Employer will grant leave with pay to the representative of an Employee who is a party to the grievance to attend the arbitration hearing.

Employee Called as a Witness

- (c) The Employer will grant leave with pay for one witness called by an Employee who is a party to the grievance to attend the Arbitration Hearing.
- 13.02 Where an Employee and his or her representative are involved in the process of this grievance, they shall be granted reasonable time off, as follows:
- (a) leave with pay, when the discussions take place at his or her work place;
- (b) leave without pay, when the discussions take place outside of the work place.

Contract Negotiations Meetings

- 13.03 Upon reasonable notification the Employer will grant leave with pay for three (3) Employees for the purpose of attending contract negotiations on behalf of the Union for the duration of such negotiations.

Preparatory Contract Negotiations Meetings

- 13.04 Upon reasonable notification the Employer will grant leave with pay for three (3) Employees for a maximum of one (1) day each to attend preparatory contract negotiations meetings.

Meetings Between the Union & Management

- 13.05 Upon reasonable notice, the Employer will grant time off with pay to two (2) Employees who are meeting with management on behalf of the Union.

Union Executive Council Meetings Congress & Conventions

- 13.06 Upon reasonable notice, the Employer will grant reasonable leave without pay for up to a maximum of two (2) Employees to attend, in an official capacity, Executive Council meetings and conventions of the Alliance, the Nunavut Employees Union, the Canadian Labour Congress and the Northern Territories Federation of Labour. One additional employee may attend subject to operational requirements.

Representatives' Training Course

- 13.07 Upon reasonable notice and where operational requirements permit, the Employer will grant reasonable leave without pay to a maximum of four (4) Employees who have been appointed as representatives on behalf of the Union to undertake training related to the responsibilities of a representative. Only one employee per department shall attend any training course at any given time.

Time-Off for Representatives

- 13.08 (a) A representative shall obtain the permission of his or her Supervisor before leaving his or her work to investigate a grievance, to meet with local management for the purpose of dealing with grievances or to attend meetings called by management; such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- (b) The representative shall report back to his or her Supervisor before resuming his or her normal duties.
- 13.09 Upon reasonable notice, the Employer will grant leave without pay to one (1) Employee;
- (a) to participate as a delegate to constitutional conferences or other similar forums mandated by Territorial Legislation, whose area of interest is of concern to organized Labour; and
- (b) to present briefs to commissions, boards and hearings that are mandated by Territorial Legislation or the Government of Canada, whose area of interest is of concern to organized Labour.

Leave for Paid Elected Nunavut Employees Union Positions

- 13.10 This Article applies to an Employee elected as President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice-President or Regional Vice-President of the Nunavut Employees Union.
- (a) The Employee shall be granted leave of absence for the term of office. During the leave of absence the Employee shall maintain all accumulated rights and benefits to which he or she is entitled under the Collective Agreement.
 - (b) The Employer shall continue to pay the Employee his or her applicable salary in accordance with the terms of this Collective Agreement. Upon invoice by the Employer, the Union shall reimburse the Employer for the amounts so paid within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice.
 - (c) The benefit of any applicable group plan shall be extended to the Employee and the Union will reimburse the Employer for any costs involved.
 - (d) The Employee shall be entitled to an increment for each year of his or her leave of absence to the maximum in the pay level of his or her applicable salary.
 - (e) The Employee shall advise the Employer as soon as possible when an extension of the leave of absence is applicable due to re-election and, if requested, an extension shall not be unreasonably denied.
 - (f) Upon termination of his or her leave of absence the Employee shall be offered an equivalent of the position he or she held with the Employer before he or she commenced the leave of absence. When the Employee wishes to invoke this Clause, he or she shall provide the Employer with ninety (90) days' notice of his or her intent to do so.
 - (g) If, during the extension of the leave of absence upon re-election, work methods have changed to the extent that retraining is necessary, the Employee shall provide retraining for himself or herself at no cost to the Employer.
 - (h) Notwithstanding sub-clause (f), the Employer may make an offer of employment to the Employee to a position within the Bargaining Unit should the Employee apply for a position by competition and be the successful candidate.

Article 14 Check Off

- 14.01 The Employer will, as a condition of employment, commence deductions from the pay of each Employee of an amount equal to the amount of Membership Fees.
- 14.02 The Union shall inform the Employer in writing of the authorized deduction to be checked off for each Employee.
- 14.03 For the purposes of Article 14.01, deductions shall be made on a biweekly basis to the extent that earnings are available. Where an Employee does not have sufficient earnings in respect of any biweekly period to permit deduction, the Employer shall not be obligated to make such deductions from subsequent salary.
- 14.04 From the date of signing and for the duration of this Agreement, no Employee organization, other than the Union, shall be permitted to have membership fees deducted by the Employer from the pay of the Employees.
- 14.05 The amounts deducted in accordance with Article 14.01 shall be remitted to the Comptroller of the Alliance by cheque within a reasonable period of time after deductions are made and shall be accompanied by particulars identifying each Employee and the deductions made on his or her behalf.
- 14.06 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article, except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer.
- 14.07 The Employer agrees to identify annually on each Employee's T-4 slip the total amount of Membership Fees deducted for the preceding year.

Article 15 Information

- 15.01 (a) The Employer agrees to provide the Union on a monthly basis with information concerning the identification of each member in the Bargaining Unit. This information shall include the name, department, job classification, unique employee identifier and employment status of all Employees.
- (b) The Employer shall indicate which Employees have been hired or transferred and those Employees whose employment has been terminated during the period reported. The Union shall be notified of Employees not paying dues due to leave and the type of leave.
- 15.02 The Employer shall provide each Employee with a copy of this Collective Agreement.

- 15.03 The Employer agrees to provide each new Employee with a copy of this Collective Agreement upon his or her appointment.
- 15.04 The Employer shall notify the Union of all newly created classifications including its designation as to whether it is within or outside of the Bargaining Unit.
- 15.05 The Employer shall maintain Seniority lists showing the length of continuous service of each Employee. The Seniority Lists shall be kept up to date, copies of which shall be posted on bulletin boards and shall be sent to the Union every six (6) months.

Article 16 Seniority

- 16.01 Seniority refers to the length of continuous employment, as defined in sub-clause 2.01(i) and shall be applied to all permanent Employees, including permanent part-time Employees.
- 16.02 If an Employee is transferred or promoted to a position with the Employer outside the Bargaining Unit and subsequently returns to a position within the Bargaining Unit, he or she shall be reinstated on the Seniority List as if he or she had remained in the Bargaining Unit.

Probation

- 16.03 A newly hired permanent full time or permanent part-time Employee shall be on probation for six (6) months. During the initial period of probation, the Employee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement except the right to grieve his or her termination or where his or her rights are otherwise limited by this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, should the Employer exercise its right to extend the Employee's initial probation period as provided in Article 16.04, the Employee shall have the right to grieve his or her termination during this extension of the initial probationary period. It is agreed by the parties that the matter is to be considered as a termination of a probationary Employee rather than of an Employee who has successfully completed the probationary period.

- 16.04 Notwithstanding Article 2.01 (gg) 2.01(ff), the initial probationary period may be extended by the Director of the department in which the employee is working for a further single period of up to three (3) months. The Employee shall be advised of such extension in writing at least fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the end of the initial probationary period. A performance review shall be conducted during the last month of the Employee's probationary period to determine the Employee's suitability for the position.

- 16.05 Employees shall be required to undergo a six (6) month probationary period when transferred, demoted or promoted to another position except to the extent that there will be no deemed just cause on termination.

This requirement does not apply to an Employee who has, immediately prior to the start of the position from which the Employee was transferred, demoted, or promoted, and in which the employee performed the same work-related duties in the position, successfully completed a six (6) month probationary period.

Article 17

Provision of Bulletin Board Space and Other Facilities

- 17.01 The Employer shall provide bulletin board space in its office and shop, clearly identified for exclusive Union use.
- 17.02 The Employer will process any mail originating from the Union addressed to all Employees in accordance with the Employer's normal internal mail distribution system.
- 17.03 A representative of the Union shall have the right to give each new Employee an orientation of up to thirty (30) minutes and the representative of the Union shall be given leave with pay for such purposes. In cases where a new Employee is unilingual in a language other than English, the representative of the Union and a person to interpret shall have the right to give an orientation of up to one hour and the representative and the interpreter shall be given leave with pay for such purposes.

Article 18

Designated Paid Holidays

- 18.01 The following days are designated paid holidays for Employees covered by this Collective Agreement:
- (a) New Year's Day;
 - (b) Good Friday;
 - (c) Easter Monday;
 - (d) Victoria Day;
 - (e) Canada Day;
 - (f) Nunavut Day;
 - (g) Civic Holiday (1st Monday in August);

- (h) Labour Day;
 - (i) Thanksgiving Day;
 - (j) Remembrance Day;
 - (k) Christmas Day;
 - (l) Boxing Day;
- 18.02 A paid holiday shall also be granted to all Employees on any special day proclaimed by the Government of Canada, the Nunavut Government, or the Council of the City of Iqaluit. An Employee shall not be entitled to holiday pay for a paid holiday that occurs in their first 30 days of employment.
- 18.03 Except with the approval of the Employer, Articles 18.01 and 18.02 shall not apply to an Employee who is absent without cause on:
- (a) the Employee's working day immediately before the designated paid holiday;
or
 - (b) the designated paid holiday, which was the Employee's regularly scheduled day to work; or
 - (c) the Employee's working day immediately following the designated paid holiday.

Holiday Falling on a Day of Rest

- 18.04 When a day designated as a holiday under Articles 18.01 and 18.02 coincides with an Employee's day of rest, the holiday shall be moved to the Employee's first working day following his or her day of rest.
- 18.05 When a day designated as a holiday for an Employee is moved to another day under the provisions of Article 18.04,
- (a) work performed by an Employee on the day from which the holiday was moved shall be considered as work performed on a day of rest; and
 - (b) work performed by an Employee on the day to which the holiday was moved, shall be considered as work performed on a holiday.
- 18.06 When the Employer requires an Employee to work on a Designated Paid Holiday as part of his or her regularly scheduled hours of duty or as overtime when he or she is not scheduled to work he or she shall be paid double time for his or her hourly rate in addition to the pay that he or she would have been granted had he or she not worked on the holiday.

- 18.07 Where a day that is a designated holiday for an Employee falls within a period of leave with pay, the holiday shall not count as a day of leave.
- 18.08 Where operational requirements permit, an Employee shall not be required to work both Christmas Day and the New Year's Day next following.
- 18.09 Where the Municipal Corporation of Iqaluit agrees to provide time off from work for Employees in support of a special occasion, those Employees who are unable to take advantage of this time off due to operational requirements and remain at work shall be given time off in lieu at straight time rate.

Article 19

Leave – General

- 19.01 When an Employee who has been granted more vacation leave, sick leave or special leave with pay than he or she has earned, dies, the Employee shall be considered to have earned that amount of leave with pay granted to him or her.
- 19.02 When an Employee with more than three (3) years of service who has been granted more vacation leave, sick leave or special leave with pay than he or she has earned is laid off, the Employee shall be considered to have earned that amount of leave with pay granted to him or her.
- 19.03 An employee's special leave, sick leave and vacation leave credits shall be provided on the employee's pay stubs.
- 19.04 When the Employer rejects an Employee's application for leave, the detailed reasons for the rejection shall be provided to the Employee in writing forthwith. An Employee's request for any leave that the Employer has not responded to within ten (10) working days from the receipt of the application shall be considered as granted.

Lieu Time

- 19.05 (a) Employees shall be permitted to accumulate a maximum of twenty-five (25) days of time in lieu per fiscal year, to be used during the fiscal year.
- (b) Any lieu time hours in excess of the equivalent of five (5) regular working days (eight (8) hours or seven (7) hours, as the case may be) accumulated but not used as of the last day of the fiscal year, shall be paid out in cash to the Employee on or before December 15 each year. Notwithstanding the preceding any Lieu time earned between Dec 15-Dec 31 shall be carried forward.
- (c) Time in Lieu may only be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the Employee and the Employer. The Employer will endeavour to approve employee requests for Time in Lieu.

Article 20

Vacation Leave

Accumulation of Vacation Leave

- 20.01 (a) For each complete month of service in a fiscal year and pro-rated for part months of service, a permanent or term Employee shall earn vacation leave at the following rates:
- (i) one and one quarter ($1\frac{1}{4}$) days each month (equivalent of fifteen (15) days per year) until the month in which two (2) years of continuous service is completed;
 - (ii) one and two-thirds ($1\frac{2}{3}$) days each month (equivalent of twenty (20) days per year) commencing in the month after completion of two (2) years of continuous service and ending in the month in which eight (8) years of continuous service is completed;
 - (iii) two and one twelfth ($2\frac{1}{12}$) days each month (equivalent of twenty-five (25) days per year) commencing in the month after completion of eight (8) years of continuous service and ending in the month in which fifteen (15) years of continuous service is completed;
 - (iv) two and one half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) days each month (equivalent of thirty (30) days per year) commencing in the month after completion of fifteen (15) years of continuous service and ending in the month which twenty-five (25) years of continuous service is completed
 - (v) two decimal nine two (2.92) days each month (equivalent of thirty-five (35) days per year) after twenty-five (25) years of continuous service and ending in the month which thirty (30) years of continuous service is completed;
 - (vi) three and one-third ($3\frac{1}{3}$) days each month (equivalent to forty (40) days per year) after thirty (30) years of continuous service is completed.
- (b) Permanent part-time Employees shall earn vacation leave based on the provisions 20.01(a), on a pro rata basis. Casual Employees and part-time Employees shall receive vacation pay equivalent to six percent (6%) of gross earnings.
- (c) An Employee shall not earn vacation leave credits for any period in excess of thirty (30) consecutive days for which he or she does not receive regular pay.

Granting of Vacation Leave

- 20.02 (a) In granting vacation leave with pay to an Employee, the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to:
- (i) schedule vacation leave for all Employees in the fiscal year in which it is earned;
 - (ii) not recall an Employee to duty after he or she has proceeded on vacation leave;
 - (iii) grant the Employee his or her vacation leave during the fiscal year in which it is earned at a time specified by the Employee;
 - (iv) grant the Employee vacation leave for up to at least five (5) consecutive weeks depending upon his or her vacation entitlements when so requested by the Employee;
 - (v) grant the Employee his or her vacation leave when specified by the Employee, if the period of vacation leave is less than a week, providing that the Employee gives the Employer reasonable advance notice.
 - (vi) recognize seniority on preference for a vacation period.

(b) All requests for vacation leave will be made in writing.

(c) Each Employee shall be allowed to indicate his or her preference for the approximate date of one continuous period of vacation leave during the fiscal year, in order of Seniority within a Department on a schedule to be posted for four (4) weeks during the month of January.

When each Employee has indicated his or her first choice, choices for a second period of vacation may be indicated in order of Seniority. Subsequent choices may be indicated in a similar manner.

Supervisors and Directors shall make their recommendations to the CAO by February 7 and the CAO shall respond to the Directors by February 14, approving or modifying the recommendations.

Requests for vacation periods in January must be notified in writing to the Employer by November 15 of the previous year. The Employer shall respond in writing by November 30, approving or denying the request with reasons.

(d) Where an Employee's vacation leave request, under (3), is approved, the Employee shall notify the Director of the exact dates of the vacation leave on confirmation of travel arrangements.

- (e) Where an Employee's vacation leave request, under (3), is not approved, the Director (or the CAO, where appropriate) shall notify the Employee in writing of the reasons for not approving the vacation leave request and shall provide an opportunity for discussion.
- (f) Where vacation dates have been approved, subsequent changes to a vacation leave schedule shall be based on availability and not on Seniority.
- (g) During the first six (6) months of employment, an Employee may take only the number of days of vacation leave earned up to the first day of leave. Following the initial six (6) months of employment, the annual vacation complement may be taken, but must not exceed the entitlement earned for the first fiscal year of employment. In subsequent years, an Employee shall receive, if requested, an advance of vacation leave credits to the end of the fiscal year.

Northern Vacation

20.03 If an Employee has indicated that his or her preferred vacation leave for the fiscal year is to be spent in the north, the Employer shall grant such flexibility with respect to the commencement of vacation leave as may be necessitated by weather factors such as ice conditions, blizzards or inclement weather subject to the following limitations:

- (a) the granting of such flexibility shall not be required, if it results in increased costs to the Employer; and
- (b) the granting of such flexibility must not be permitted to disrupt the vacation leave of another Employee or leave the Employer in a situation where the necessary Employees are not available to perform the work.

20.04 Employees are not permitted to carry over more vacation credits than can be earned in one fiscal year. Vacation leave credits exceeding one year's entitlement will be liquidated in cash in the month of December each year provided each affected employee is given thirty (30) days advance notice.

20.05 Where in respect of any period of vacation leave, an Employee:

- (a) is granted special leave, when there is a death in his or her immediate family as defined in Article 21; or
- (b) is granted special leave with pay because of illness in his or her immediate family as defined in Article 21; or
- (c) is granted sick leave on production of a medical certificate;

the period of vacation leave so displaced shall either be added to the vacation period, if requested by the Employee and approved by the Employer, or reinstated as vacation leave credits for use at a later date.

Leave When Employment Terminates

- 20.06 Where an Employee dies or otherwise terminates his or her employment, the Employee or his or her estate shall, in lieu of earned but unused vacation leave, be paid an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of days of earned but unused vacation leave by the daily rate of pay applicable to the Employee immediately prior to the termination of his or her employment.
- 20.07 An Employee whose employment is terminated as a result of the employee having abandoned his or her position is entitled to receive the payment referred to in Article 20.06.
- 20.08 The Employer may alter an Employee's vacation period, due to emergency operational requirements, after it has been approved, but no later than one month prior to the scheduled vacation allotment unless:
- (a) the Employee has made non refundable deposits for his or her vacation; or
 - (b) the Employee's spouse has arranged a vacation period which coincides with that of the Employee.

Vacation Travel Assistance

- 20.09 (a) Subject to sub-clause 20.09 (h), all Employees excluding casuals travelling on vacation leave are entitled to transportation assistance once each year, in cash, as provided in Article 20.09 (c). If both spouse or partner are entitled to Vacation Travel Assistance under this agreement, the City will apply only one VTA per household.
- (b) Notwithstanding sub-clause (a), an Employee shall not receive transportation assistance under this Article during his or her initial probationary period.
- (c) VTA shall be calculated as follows:
- i. Employee - $2,000;
 - ii. Employee's spouse or partner - $2,000
 - iii. Employee's Dependents - $2,000 for each Dependant,
- to a maximum benefit of $10,000 per household.
- (d) Vacation travel assistance shall be available pursuant to these provisions to the Employee, the Employee's spouse or partner and up to and including three (3) Dependents.
- (e) An Employee may not collect vacation travel assistance earlier than thirty (30) days in advance of his or her scheduled vacation. Subject to the foregoing, vacation travel assistance payments will be issued not later than fifteen (15) days after a request in writing for the same has been approved by the Employee's Director.

- (f) To receive this benefit an Employee must liquidate at least two (2) days of vacation leave.
- (g) The Employee's signature on the application form will serve as the Employee's certification that the vacation travel assistance will be used for the purpose for which it was issued. No other form of accountability will be required.
- (h) Employees with five (5) or more years of continuous employment shall be entitled to vacation travel assistance and vacation travel time twice in each fiscal year as defined in 20.09(c).

This article 20.09 (h) shall not apply to employees hired after December 15, 2017, but will continue to apply to Employees who are employed on December 15, 2017.

- (i) Upon completion of five (5) years of continuous service with the Employer, an Employee may in any year, upon written notification to the Employer, carry forward to the next fiscal year one (1) vacation travel assistance and two (2) travel days.

Travel Time

- 20.10 Vacations shall be lengthened by two (2) work days for the purposes of travel time provided that an Employee liquidates at least an equal number of vacation leave credits. This article shall apply once per year, except as noted under Article 20.09(h).

Winter Bonus Days

- 20.11 (a) An Employee who has requested and is granted vacation leave between October 1 and March 31 of any year shall, in addition to his or her vacation leave entitlement, receive one (1) day of extra leave for each five (5) consecutive days of vacation leave that he or she liquidates within the above days up to a maximum of four (4) days.
- (b) In cases where a designated paid holiday falls within the period of vacation leave, it shall be considered as a day of liquidated leave for determining the entitlement of winter bonus days.

Article 21

Special Leave

- 21.01 An Employee shall earn special leave credits up to a maximum of twenty-five (25) days, at the following rates:
- (a) one-half (1/2) day for each calendar month, in which he or she receives pay for ten (10) days or more, and;
 - (b) one-quarter (1/4) day for each calendar month, in which he or she receives pay for less than ten (10) days.
- 21.02 For the purposes of this Article, "immediate family" includes an Employee's father, mother, brother, sister, spouse, partner, child, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandchild, grandparent; and any relative of the Employee permanently residing in the Employee's household or with whom the Employee permanently resides.
- 21.03 (a) The Employer shall grant special leave with pay to an Employee, subject to his or her available special leave credits, for a period of up to five (5) consecutive working days:
- (i) where there is a death in the Employee's immediate family;
 - or
 - (ii) where a member of the Employee's immediate family becomes ill (not including childbirth) and the Employee is required to care for his or her Dependents or for the sick person;
 - or
 - (iii) where a member of the immediate family residing outside Iqaluit becomes seriously ill and requires the Employee's attendance;
 - or
 - (iv) when the Employee is to be married;
 - or
 - (v) where there is a general transportation break down or tie-up, including land and water travel outside Iqaluit caused by weather, provided that the Employee makes every reasonable effort to report for duty;
 - or

- (vi) on the occasion of the birth of his or her child or the adoption of a child into his or her family.
- (b) Where more than one of the events specified in sub-clause (a) happens concurrently, subject to his or her available special leave credits, the Employee may apply for up to ten (10) consecutive days of special leave, which shall not unreasonably be denied.
- (c) Under emergency or extenuating circumstances, a supervisor may grant 10 days special leave or more (to a maximum of 20 working days) in relation to any or all of the above (i) to (vi) subject to his or her available special leave credits.

21.04 The Employer may grant an Employee special leave with pay, subject to his or her available special leave credits, for a period of up to five (5) consecutive working days:

- (a) where special circumstances not directly attributable to the Employee prevent his or her reporting to duty including:
 - (i) serious household or domestic emergencies but not involving a marital dispute;
 - (ii) serious community emergencies, where the Employee is required to render assistance;
 - (iii) closure of school or daycare facility.
- (b) in the event of the death of Employee's son-in law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law;
- (c) in the event of a death in the Employee's immediate family residing or travelling outside of Canada in addition to special leave eligible in Article 21.03;
- (d) in circumstances which are of general value to the Employer such as where the Employee:
 - (i) takes an examination which will improve his or her position or qualifications;
 - (ii) attends his university convocation, if he or she has been continuously employed for one (1) year;
 - (iii) attends a course in civil defence training;
- (e) Such leave will not be unreasonably withheld.

Advance of Credits

- 21.05 Where an Employee has insufficient special leave credits to permit the granting of special leave under Articles 21.03 or 21.04, special leave up to a maximum of five (5) working days may be granted at the discretion of the Employer, subject to the deduction of such advance leave from any special leave credits subsequently earned by the Employee.

Article 22
Sick Leave

- 22.01 An Employee shall earn sick leave credits at the rate of one and one quarter (1 ¼) days for each calendar month for which he or she receives pay for at least ten (10) days.
- 22.02 All absences from work on account of illness or injury, other than on days which are Designated Paid Holidays, shall be charged against an Employee's accumulated sick leave credits.
- 22.03 Where leave of absence without pay is authorized by the Employer or, where an Employee is laid-off because of lack of work, and the Employee returns to work upon expiration of such leave of absence or lay-off, the Employee shall retain any unused sick leave credits earned at the time of lay off or the commencement of the leave without pay.
- 22.04 Where an Employee:
- (a) signs a statement that he or she was unable to perform his or her duties because of illness or injury, unless excused from signing a statement by the Employer, and;
 - (b) requests a period of sick leave not exceeding three (3) days, without a medical certificate, and
 - (c) has not been granted, during the current fiscal year, more than eight (8) days sick leave, without a medical certificate, the Employer shall, subject to the Employee's available sick leave credits, grant the sick leave requested.
- 22.05 An Employee is required to produce a medical certificate for:
- (a) sick leave in excess of three (3) working days;
 - (b) additional sick leave in a fiscal year in which the Employee has already been granted eight (8) days sick leave wholly on the basis of statements signed by the Employee.

- 22.06 The Employer shall provide written notice to an Employee who has been granted six (6) days sick leave in a fiscal year wholly on the basis of statements signed by the Employee advising the Employee:
- (a) how many days of sick leave have been granted during the fiscal year wholly on the basis of statements signed by the Employee
 - (b) that when eight (8) days of sick leave have been granted to the Employee during the fiscal year wholly on the basis of statements signed by the Employee, all further sick leave during the fiscal year will require the production of a medical certificate.
- 22.07 An Employee shall not earn nor is he or she eligible to utilize sick leave credits in any period during which he or she is under suspension or on leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) days.

Transportation to a Medical Centre

- 22.08 Where an Employee or a Dependant of an Employee is required to travel from Iqaluit to secure medical or dental treatment, the Employee shall secure funding from all other sources. The Employer will reimburse the Employee for the deductible incurred, if any, for this purpose.

Medical Travel Time

- 22.09 Every Employee travelling out of Iqaluit to a medical or dental centre under the provisions of this Article with the approval of the Employer will be granted leave of absence with pay, which is not to be charged against his or her sick leave credits, for the lesser of three (3) days or the actual number of days required to travel from Iqaluit to the medical or dental centre and return.

Sick Leave Pay-Out

- 22.10 Where an Employee dies or otherwise terminates his or her employment, the Employee or his or her estate shall be paid an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of days of earned but unused sick leave by one-quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the daily rate of pay applicable to the Employee immediately prior to the termination of his or her employment.

Article 23

Other Types of Leave

- 23.19 (a) For the purpose of this clause, family member is defined as the employee's partner, the employee's child or the child of the employee's partner, a parent of the employee or partner of the parent.
- (b) The employee shall be granted leave without pay for a period of up to eight (8) weeks in a twelve (12) month period to provide care of support to a family member if a doctor or qualified medical practitioner issues a certificate stating that the family member has a serious medical condition with a significant risk of death within twenty-six (26) weeks.
- (c) A leave of absence under this clause may only be taken in periods of not less than one week's duration.
- (d) The entitlement to leave without pay may be shared by two (2) or more employees of the same family, however, the total amount of leave without pay that may be taken in regard to the same family member is eight (8) weeks within the twenty-six (26) week period.
- (e) The medical certificate referred to in clause (b) above shall be provided to the Employer within fifteen (15) days of an employee's return to work.
- (f) The Employer will continue to ensure coverage and to pay the employer's share of contributions to the benefits specified in Section 209.2 (1), Division VII, Part III of the Canada Labour Code, specifically pension, health and disability benefits.

23.20 Up to maximum of eight (8) weeks in a twelve (12) month period, payment equivalent to the difference between the Employment Insurance (EI) compassionate care benefits the employee is eligible to receive and ninety-three per cent (93%) of his/her weekly rate of pay less any other monies earned during the period which may result in a decrease in EI benefits to which the employee would have been eligible if no extra monies had been earned during this period.

Article 24 Hours of Work

24.01 The hours of work for Employees shall be as follows:

Public Works Employees

(a) Water & Sewage Truck Drivers and Helpers:

Regular hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per day, five (5) consecutive days per period of seven (7) days, exclusive of a one (1) hour meal period, forty (40) hours per week. Regularly scheduled hours of work shall not be scheduled to begin before 6:00 A.M. and shall not be scheduled to end after midnight. The Employer will consult with the Union with respect to shift schedules.

(b) Other Public Works Employees, exclusive of clerical staff:

Regular hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per day, five (5) consecutive days per week, Monday to Friday, exclusive of a one (1) hour meal period, forty (40) hours per week. Regularly scheduled hours of work shall not be scheduled to begin before 6:00 A.M. and shall not be scheduled to end after midnight. The Employer will consult with the Union with respect to shift schedules.

(c) Emergency Services Employees:

Regular hours of work shall be on the basis of shifts structured not to exceed two thousand, eighty (2080) regular hours per year subject to the approval of the Labour Standards Officer. The shift rotation may be changed from time to time to meet operational demands.

The Union and the Employer agree to cooperate to obtain the necessary averaging permit.

(d) Recreation Department Employees:

Regular hours of work shall be on the basis of shifts structured to seven (7) hours per day, five (5) consecutive days per seven (7) days, exclusive of a one (1) hour meal period, thirty five (35) hours per week. It is understood and agreed that, where an Employee is required to be on duty during a meal period, the Employee's regular work day will end seven (7) hours after the Employee's starting time.

(e) Clerical and Office Employees:

Regular hours of work shall be on the basis of seven (7) hours per day, five (5) consecutive days per week, Monday to Friday, exclusive of a one (1) hour meal period, thirty five (35) hours per week. The normal starting time shall be 9:00 A.M. and the normal stopping time shall be 5:00 P.M.

(f) By-Law Officers:

Regular hours of work shall be on the basis of seven (7) hours per day, five (5) consecutive days per seven (7) day period, exclusive of a one (1) hour meal period, thirty five (35) hours per week.

(g) Notwithstanding any provision of this Article, in any work situation where the Employer is required to operate on a twenty four (24) hour basis, it is understood that the Employer will structure the appropriate shifts to provide coverage and will consult with the Union prior to implementation.

(h) Flexible hours of work may be granted by the appropriate Department Head and the CAO subject to mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

24.02 (a) All Employees shall be entitled to rest periods of fifteen (15) minutes duration twice per day, one during the first half of the work day and one during the second half of the work day.

(b) In the event that an Employee is unable to take his or her meal period or rest period due to operational requirements, the meal period or rest period will be taken at another time. Meal periods and rest periods may be taken at times that best suit the operational needs of the Employer and the personal needs of the Employee by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Employee.

Article 25

Overtime

- 25.01 In this Article:
- (a) "straight time rate" means the hourly rate of pay;
 - (b) "time and one-half" means one and one-half times the straight time rate;
 - (c) "double time" means twice the straight time rate.
- 25.02 An Employee who is required to work overtime shall be paid overtime compensation for each completed one-half (1/2) hour of overtime worked by the Employee, when the overtime work is authorized in advance by the Employer.
- 25.03 Where an Employee is required to work overtime, the Employee shall record, in a form and manner determined by the Employer, the starting and finishing time of the overtime worked.
- 25.04 (a) Subject to operational requirements the Employer shall make every reasonable effort:
- (i) to allocate overtime work on an equitable basis among readily available qualified Employees, who are normally required to perform that work as part of their regular duties;
 - (ii) to give an Employee reasonable advance notice when the Employee is required to work overtime. In the event the Employer fails to provide at least two (2) hours notice all hours worked shall be at double time.
- (b) Subject to sub-clauses (c) and (d), an Employee may refuse to work overtime. Where an Employee wishes to refuse to work overtime over an extended period, he or she shall so advise the Employer in writing.
 - (c) An Employee shall not refuse to work overtime in the case of an emergency.
 - (d) Emergency Services Employees, Dispatchers, Medical Technicians, shall not refuse scheduled standby and subsequent overtime duty.
- 25.05 (a) "First day of rest" is defined as the 24-hour period commencing at midnight of the calendar day on which the Employee completed his last regular shift, and
- (b) When the first and second or subsequent days of rest are consecutive, "second or subsequent day of rest" is defined as the period immediately following expiration of the first day of rest and ending two (2) hours prior to the beginning of the Employees next regular shift.

Overtime Compensation

- 25.06 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, where an Employee is required to work overtime, he or she shall be paid time and one-half (1 ½) for all overtime hours worked.
- (b) Subject to sub clause (c), where an Employee is required to work overtime on his or her second day of rest, if consecutive to his or her first day of rest, he or she shall be paid double time for all overtime hours worked on that day.
- (c) Where an Employee is required to work overtime immediately before his or her shift begins on a day following two (2) or more consecutive days of rest, he or she shall be paid double time, except for the two (2) hours immediately preceding his or her shift, for which two (2) hours he or she shall be paid time and one-half.
- (d) Subject to Article 19.05, where an Employee requests leave in lieu of payment for overtime worked, the Employer will grant the Employee equivalent leave of absence with pay at the appropriate overtime rate, to be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the Employer and the Employee.
- 25.07 Where an Employee is required to work three (3) or more hours of overtime immediately following his or her regularly scheduled hours of duty and, because of the operational requirements, the Employee is not permitted to leave his or her place of work, the Employer will either
- (a) provide the Employee with a meal, or
- (b) pay to the Employee a meal allowance in an amount equal to that specified for Dinner in the Duty Travel Meals and Incidental Expenses in Article 44.

Article 26

Pay

- 26.01 (a) Employees are entitled to be paid for services rendered for the classification and position to which they are appointed at the pay rates specified in the Appendices attached.
- (b) Employees shall not receive any advance of wages or benefits except as otherwise specified in this Agreement.
- (c) The Employer agrees that students hired not covered by Appendix "A" for student placement for specific projects such as "city cleanup" and paid at the summer student rates ranging from $14.00 to $18.50 per hour shall not perform the work of any employee in the place of such employee in the Bargaining Unit listed in Appendix "A." The summer student rates shall be set by the CAO. Summer students include all short term summer employees that may include secondary or post-secondary students.

- 26.02 (a) Employees shall be paid on every second Friday by payroll deposit. Should a pay day be a Designated Holiday, payroll deposit will be deposited on the day immediately preceding the Holiday.
- (b) In the event there is delay in paying Employees, emergency cheques will be issued to the extent of wages earned during that pay period.
- (c) Where pay statements are distributed to employees at their place of work, the statement shall be provided to the employee in a sealed envelope or by such other means so as to secure confidentiality.
- (d) In the event an employee is unable to open or maintain a bank account the employee shall be paid by pay cheque.
- 26.03 (a) When overtime compensation is paid, the pay statement shall indicate the pay period, the rate or rates at which the overtime is compensated and the number of hours of overtime worked.
- (b) Every Employee who has earned overtime compensation or any other remuneration in addition to his or her regular pay, should receive such extra remuneration on the pay day at the end of the pay period in which it was earned, but in any event shall receive such remuneration on the following pay day provided that appropriate documentation concerning the overtime has been submitted.

Acting Pay

- 26.04 (a) When an Employee designated to perform the duties and take the responsibility of a higher classification level on an acting basis, he or she shall be paid acting pay as described in 26.04(b) for the duration of time in which he or she performs the duties of the higher classification, including any days designated as paid holidays, as if he or she had been appointed to that higher classification for the period in which he or she acts.
- (b) Acting appointments must be approved in advance in writing by CAO. An employee who is acting in a position within the Bargaining Unit at a higher level than their regular position shall be paid at the next closest step in the acting scale, not lower than their regular pay rate. Red-circled employees above the current grid that would not be entitled to receive an increase in the higher classification shall receive a twenty percent (20%) increase in their regular rate of pay for their acting times as specified in 26.04(a).

Implementation of Agreement: Salary Increases

- 26.05 (a) The Employer agrees to pay the negotiated salary increases to every Employee not later than the second month following the month in which this Agreement is signed and, in the case of subsequent salary increases, not later than the month following the month in which they become effective.
- (b) The Employer agrees to pay all retroactive remuneration for salary increases, overtime, acting pay and allowances not later than three months following the month in which this Agreement is signed.
- (c) Retroactive pay shall be separately identified and noted on a pay statement for that purpose.

Pay on Promotion or Transfer

- 26.06 When an Employee is appointed to another position, he or she shall be paid:
- (a) in the case of a promotion, subject to paragraph (c), an increase in salary that is nearest to but not less than the difference between Step 1 and Step 2 of the pay range applicable to the position to which he or she has been promoted;
- (b) in the case of a transfer, at the salary rate nearest to and not less than his or her salary rate prior to the transfer, except that, if the Employee agrees to accept a transfer to a position, the maximum rate of pay for which is less than his or her rate of pay prior to transfer, the Employee will continue to receive his or her rate of pay prior to transfer, which will be red circled. When the maximum rate of pay of the position to which he or she has transferred exceeds the red circled amount, his or her salary shall follow the pay scale for the position to which he or she has been transferred at the maximum rate;
- (c) in the case of an appointment as a result of an Employee's successful application for a position, the maximum rate of pay for which is equal to or less than his or her rate of pay prior to the appointment, the Employee shall be paid at a level in the appropriate pay range for the position for which he or she has been appointed that is commensurate with his or her experience and qualifications to which he or she has been appointed.

Pay Recovery

- 26.07 (a) Where an Employee, through no fault of his or her own, has been overpaid, the Employer will, before recovery action is implemented, advise the Employee in writing of the amount overpaid and the intention of the Employer to recover the overpayment. Prior to said recovery, the Employer and Employee shall discuss and devise an acceptable recovery schedule.
- (b) Where an Employee has received more than his or her proper entitlement to wages or benefits or where retroactive membership dues deductions are necessary, no continuing Employee shall be subject to such deductions in excess of twenty percent (20%) of the Employee's net earnings per pay period.

- 26.08 (a) An Employee shall be granted increases in pay as per Appendix "A" until they reach the maximum for the position. Such pay increases are dependent on satisfactory performance of the duties of the position by the employee.
- (b) For purposes of such pay increases the performance of the employee shall be reviewed annually within thirty (30) days prior to or thirty (30) days following the employee's anniversary date. Failure to complete the performance review shall constitute satisfactory performance for the purpose of this Article only.

Article 27 Reporting Pay

- 27.01 (a) If an Employee reports to work on his or her regularly scheduled work day and there is insufficient or no work available he or she is entitled to four (4) hours' pay at straight- time rate.
- (b) If an Employee is directed to report for work on a day of rest or on a designated paid holiday, and there is insufficient or no work available, he or she is entitled to four (4) hours' pay at the appropriate overtime rate.

Article 28 Call-Back Pay

- 28.01 The term "call-back" refers to the recalling of an Employee to his or her place of work for a specific duty.
- 28.02 (a) An Employee on call-back shall be paid the greater of:
- (i) compensation at the appropriate overtime rate;
 - or
 - (ii) compensation equivalent to four (4) hours' pay at straight-time rate.
- (b) Subject to Article 19.05, where an Employee requests leave in lieu of payment for call-back, the Employer will grant the Employee equivalent leave of absence with pay at the pay rate under sub-clause (a), to be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the Employer and the Employee.
- 28.03 When an Employee reports for work on call-back and is required to use transportation services other than normal public transportation service at his or her own expense, he or she shall be:

- (a) reimbursed for the actual cost of commercial transportation each way, provided that the expense is supported by a receipt,
or
 - (b) paid the appropriate distance rate, as specified in the Duty Travel Expense rates set out in Article 44.
- 28.04 (a) Except as indicated in Articles 25.04(c), (d), an Employee shall not be required to return to work on a call-back.
- (b) Subject to sub-clause (a), no Employee shall be disciplined for being unable to return to work on a call-back.
- 28.05 If an Employee is directed to report for work on a call-back, and there is insufficient or no work available, he or she is entitled to compensation in accordance with sub-clause 28.02.

Article 29

Shift Work and Shift Premiums

- 29.01 An Employee who is regularly scheduled to work outside of the normal hours of work of 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., Monday to Friday, shall be paid a shift premium of one dollar fifty cents ($1.50) for all hours worked.
- 29.02 The Employer will post a master work schedule no less than fourteen (14) calendar days in advance to run for at least twenty-eight (28) calendar days for Employees in an operation who work shift hours. The Employer will structure the shifts, insofar as is practicable, in such a way as to equalize weekends off and shift start times.

Shift Exchange

- 29.03 Shift exchanges between Employees shall be permitted, subject to advance notification, providing they can perform the same duties or job functions, where there are no additional costs to the Employer, and with the approval of the Employer.

Article 30

Term Positions

- 30.01 Except for term employees hired to fill vacancies arising out of Article 11.10, no term position shall have a stated term of more than two (2) years.
- 30.02 The employment of the incumbent in a term position must continue to the end of the term, except in the case of a termination for the reasons of discipline or lack of funding.

- 30.03 If the Employer should wish a term position to extend beyond two (2) years, the position must become a permanent position, which must be offered to the incumbent of the term position.
- 30.04 Where a term position becomes a permanent position and the incumbent in the term position is appointed to the permanent position, his or her seniority shall date from the initial date of hire in the term position.
- 30.05 Term Employees shall not receive long and short term disability benefits until they meet the requirements set out in the NEBS Policy.

Article 31

Standby

- 31.01 (a) Where the Employer requires an Employee to be available on standby during off duty hours, the Employee shall be entitled to a standby payment for each eight (8) consecutive hours or portion thereof that he or she is on Standby as follows:
- (i) for any period of standby on the Employee's day of rest or on a Designated Paid Holiday - twenty dollars ($20.00)
 - (ii) for any other period of Standby – fifteen dollars ($15.00)
- (b) An Employee designated by letter or by list for standby duty shall be available during his or her period of Standby at a known telephone number and/or pager and/or radio and shall be available to return for duty as quickly as possible if called. In designating Employees for Standby, the Employer will endeavour to provide for the equitable distribution of standby duties among readily available qualified Employees who are normally required, in the regular duties, to perform that work.
- (c) No Standby payment shall be granted if an Employee is unable or unwilling to report for duty when required.
- (d) An Employee on Standby who is required to report for work shall be paid, in addition to the standby pay, the appropriate overtime rate for all hours worked, subject to a minimum payment of four (4) hours' pay at straight time rate each time he or she reports, except that this minimum shall apply only once during each standby period of eight (8) consecutive hours or portion thereof.
- (e) Except in the case of an emergency, standby schedules shall be posted fourteen (14) days in advance of the starting date of the new shift schedule.

- (f) Notwithstanding Articles 25.04(c), (d), no disciplinary action will be taken against an Employee who is not available for Standby Duty, provided that he or she gives the Employer adequate advance notice of his or her unavailability and can provide reasonable grounds for being unavailable.
- 31.02 When an Employee on Standby is required to report for work and is required to use transportation services other than normal public transportation service at his or her own expense, he or she shall be:
- (a) reimbursed for the actual cost of commercial transportation each way, provided that the expense is supported by a receipt,
- or
- (b) paid the appropriate distance rate, as specified in the Duty Travel Expense rates set out in Article 44.
- 31.03 All Employees required to be on Standby shall report for work when called upon to do so unless the Employee has given notice to the Employer that alternative arrangements with another qualified Employee have been made and the other Employee is ready and willing to report for standby duties.

Article 32

Technological Change

- 32.01 (a) Both parties recognize the overall advantages of technological change. Both parties will, therefore, encourage and promote technological change and improvements.
- (b) With this in view and recognizing the extensive lead time required for the selection, provision and installation of sophisticated equipment, the Employer agrees to provide at least six (6) months notice to the Union of any major technological change in equipment, which would result in changes in the employment status or in this Agreement.
- (c) Where the Employer has notified the Union that it intends to introduce technological change, the parties undertake to meet within the next fifteen (15) days and to hold constructive and meaningful consultations in an effort to reach agreement on solutions and administrative procedures to deal with problems arising from the change.
- (d) The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to continue employment of Employees who would otherwise become redundant because of technological change.
- (e) In cases where Employees may require retraining, the Employer will make every reasonable effort to offer training courses.

Article 33
Pay for Travel on Behalf of the Employer

- 33.01 Subject to Article 33.04, where an Employee is required to travel on behalf of the Employer, the Employee shall be paid straight time rate for the actual time travelled, to a maximum of eight (8) hours, for all travel outside of the normal work week.
- 33.02 For the purpose of this Article, hours travelled includes a one hour check in period at airports, bus depots, or train stations, as well as one hour check out period at each overnight stopover and at the final destination. Hours travelled also include time spent waiting for connecting flights, trains or buses, but is exclusive of overnight stopovers.
- 33.03 The Employer will make every reasonable effort to restrict travel outside Iqaluit, which requires absence from home beyond a period that includes more than one weekend.
- 33.04 The above entitlements shall not apply to an apprentice while travelling to or from trades school on a day of rest or designated paid holiday or while in attendance at trades school.

Article 34
Lay-Off, Job Security & Severance Pay

- 34.01 (a) Lay-offs will be made, when necessary, on the basis of reverse order of Seniority and classification of work.
- (b) In order to minimize the adverse effects of lay off, the Employer will provide retraining when practicable.
- (c) A person ceases to be a lay off, if he or she is not appointed to a position within twelve (12) months from the date on which he or she became a lay-off.
- 34.02 (a) Before an Employee is laid off, he or she shall be given three (3) months' notice in writing of the effective date of his or her lay off or pay in lieu thereof.
- (b) Every Employee subject to lay off shall, during the period of notice, be granted reasonable leave with pay for the purpose of being interviewed and examined by a prospective Employer and such additional leave with pay as the Employer considers reasonable for the Employee to travel to and from the place where his or her presence is so required.

- 34.03 The Employer shall not discharge, suspend, lay off, demote or otherwise discipline an Employee on the grounds that garnishment proceedings may be or have been taken with respect to an Employee.
- 34.04 The Employer may retrain Employees who would otherwise become redundant as a result of Employer planned termination and such retraining shall commence as soon as possible.
- 34.05 Recall from a lay off will be made on the basis of Seniority and classification of work.
- 34.06 (a) The Employer shall give notice of recall personally or by registered mail.
- (b) Where notice of recall is given personally, the Employer shall deliver in duplicate a letter stating that the Employee is recalled. In this instance, notice of recall is deemed to be given when served.
- (c) Where notice of recall is given by registered mail, notice is deemed to be given three (3) days from the date of mailing.
- 34.07 The Employee shall return to work within ten (10) working days of receipt of notice of recall, unless, on reasonable grounds, he or she is unable to do so, but in any event he or she shall return to work within twenty-eight (28) calendar days.

Cooling Off Period

- 34.08 An Employee who wilfully terminates his or her employment as a result of a misunderstanding or argument shall be allowed to return to work and remain employed, if he or she does so within twenty-four (24) hours or notifies the Employer within twenty-four (24) hours through his or her supervisor or through the next available level of management only if the supervisor is not reachable, of his or her intention to return to work at the commencement of his or her next shift.

If the Employer should refuse to allow the Employee to return to work, the termination shall be considered as a discharge, effective the date the Employee sought to return to work and may be grieved as a discharge.

The above cooling off period may be utilized only once during any calendar year.

Severance Pay

- 34.09 A permanent or term Employee who has one (1) year or more of continuous employment and who is laid off is entitled to be paid Severance Pay at the time of lay off.
- 34.10 In the case of a permanent or term Employee who is laid off for the first time following the signing of this Agreement, the amount of Severance Pay shall be two (2) weeks' pay for the first complete year of continuous employment, two (2) weeks' pay for the second complete year of continuous employment and one (1) week's pay for each succeeding complete year of continuous employment.

- 34.11 In the case of a permanent or term Employee who is laid off for a second or subsequent time following the signing of this Agreement the amount of Severance Pay shall be two (2) weeks' pay for the first complete year of continuous employment after re-engagement and one (1) week's pay for each succeeding complete year of continuous employment less any period in respect of which he was granted Severance Pay by the Employer from the previous lay off.

Article 35 Statement of Duties

- 35.01 When an Employee is first hired or when an Employee is reassigned to another position in the Bargaining Unit, the Employer shall, before the Employee is assigned to that position, provide the Employee with a current and accurate written statement of duties of the position to which he or she is assigned.
- 35.02 Upon written request, an Employee shall be given a complete and current statement of duties and responsibilities of his or her position.

Article 36 Employee Performance Review and Employee Files

- 36.01 When a formal review of an Employee's performance is made, the Employee concerned shall be given the opportunity to discuss its contents. The Employee shall also be given the opportunity to provide written comments to be attached to his or her performance appraisal and may use the grievance procedure in Article 38 to correct any factual inaccuracies in his or her performance appraisal.
- 36.02 The formal review of an Employee's performance shall also incorporate an opportunity for the Employee to state his or her career development goals and request any training, in service training, retraining, or any facet of career development which may be available.
- 36.03 The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in the case of promotion opportunities or disciplinary action any document from the file of an Employee, the existence of which the Employee was not made aware, by the provision of a copy thereof at the time of filing.
- 36.04 Upon written request of an Employee, the Personnel file of that Employee shall be made available for his or her examination at reasonable time in the presence of an authorized representative of the Employer.
- 36.05 (a) Only one file per Employee for the purposes of performance evaluation or discipline shall exist.
- (b) The Employer agrees that communications between an Employee and his or her representative are privileged and confidential. The Employer shall not ask questions of the representatives on confidential matters and the representative shall not be forced to testify against an Employee.

- 36.06 Any document or written statement related to disciplinary action which may have been placed on the personnel file of an Employee, shall be destroyed after eighteen (18) months have elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken provided that no further disciplinary action of a similar nature has been recorded during this period
- 36.07 The Employer's representative who assesses an Employee's performance must have observed the Employee's performance for at least one half of the period for which the Employee's performance is evaluated. In the event the Employee's Supervisor has not observed the Employee's performance for one half of the period of performance review, the assessment will be carried out by another Supervisor who has observed the Employee's performance for the appropriate period.

Article 37 Classification

- 37.01 Where an Employee believes that his or her position has been improperly classified, he or she may submit a complaint in writing to the Director of Human Resources or designate. The Director of Human Resources or designate shall provide an opportunity for discussion and respond in writing to the Employee within thirty (30) days.
- 37.02 Should the response of the Director of Human Resources or designate be unsatisfactory to the Employee, the complaint may be submitted to arbitration under Articles 38.17 through 38.19 within and not later than fourteen (14) days following the receipt of the response of the Director of Human Resources or designate. The decision, at the discretion of the arbitrator, may be retroactive to the date of the initial complaint by the Employee.
- 37.03 The classification plan shall not be changed except with the agreement of the Union.
- 37.04 During the term of this agreement, if a new or revised classification is implemented by the Employer, the Employer shall, before applying the New or revised classification, negotiate with the Union the rates of pay and the rules affecting the pay of employees for the classification affected. If the parties fail to reach an agreement within thirty (30) days from the date on which the Employer submits the new or revised classification to the Union the Employer may apply the new rates of pay and the Union may refer the matter to arbitration. The arbitrator's decision will be retroactive to the date of application of the new rates.

Article 38
Grievance/Mediation/Arbitration Procedure

- 38.01 (a) The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise in each of the following circumstances:
- (i) by the interpretation, application, or administration of:
 - 1) A direction or other instrument made or issued by the Employer dealing with terms or conditions of employment;
 - 2) a provision of this Agreement;
 - (ii) disciplinary action resulting in demotion, suspension, or a financial penalty;
 - (iii) letters of discipline placed on an Employee's personnel file;
 - (iv) discharge.
- (b) The procedure for the final resolution of grievances is to arbitration.
- 38.02 If an Employee so desires, he or she may be assisted and represented by the Union when presenting a grievance at any level.
- 38.03 An Employee, who wishes to present a grievance at any prescribed level in the grievance procedure, shall transmit this grievance to his or her Supervisor, who shall forthwith
- (a) forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at the appropriate level; and
 - (b) provide the Employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received by the supervisor.
- 38.04 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a grievance shall be processed by recourse to the following steps:
- (a) First Level: Department Head or his/her designate
 - (b) Second Level: CAO
 - (c) Third Level: Committee of Council
 - (d) Final Level: Arbitration
- 38.05 The Union shall have the right to consult with the Employer with respect to a grievance at each or any level of the grievance procedure.

- 38.06 An Employee may present a grievance to the first level of the grievance procedure not later than twenty (20) calendar days after the date on which he or she is notified orally or in writing or on which he or she first becomes aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.
- 38.07 The Employer shall reply in writing to an Employee's grievance:
- (a) within fourteen (14) calendar days at Level 1;
 - (b) within thirty (30) calendar days at Level 2;
 - (c) within forty-five (45) calendar days at Level 3;
- 38.08 An Employee or the Union may present a grievance at each succeeding level in the grievance procedure beyond the first level:
- (a) Where the decision or settlement is not satisfactory to the grievor, within and not later than fourteen (14) calendar days after that decision or settlement has been conveyed in writing to the grievor by the Employer.
 - (b) Where the Employer has not conveyed a decision to the grievor within the time prescribed in Article 38.07 within and not later than fourteen (14) days after the day the reply was due.
- 38.09 Where an Employee has been represented by the Union in the presentation of his or her grievance, the Employer will provide the appropriate representative of the Union with a copy of the Employer's decision at each level of the grievance procedure at the same time that the Employer's decision is conveyed to the Employee.
- 38.10 No Employee shall be discharged without first being given notice in writing together with the reasons. When the Employer discharges an Employee, the grievance procedures shall apply, except that the grievance may be presented at the Final Level.
- 38.11 The Union shall have the right to initiate and present a grievance on any matter commencing at Level 2 of the grievance procedure.
- 38.12 The Employer shall have the right to initiate a grievance, and present it to the President of the Nunavut Employees Union. This shall be deemed to have fulfilled the Level 2 requirement. Onus placed upon the Employer throughout this section shall be placed upon the Union in this instance and the same time limits shall apply.
- 38.13 An Employee shall have the right to present a grievance on matters relating to the application or interpretation of this Agreement provided that the Employee first obtains the authorization of the Union prior to presenting such grievance.
- 38.14 An Employee may, by written notice to the CAO, withdraw a grievance, provided that, where the grievance is one arising out of the application or interpretation of this Agreement, his or her withdrawal has the approval, in writing, of the Union.

- 38.15 The time limits stipulated in the grievance procedure may be extended by written mutual agreement between the Employer and the Employee and the Union representative, where he or she is involved.
- 38.16 No proceedings under this Article are invalid by reason of any defect of form or any technical irregularity.

Arbitration

- 38.17 If the grievance should not be resolved following Level 3 either party may, by written notice to the other party, refer the matter to arbitration.
- 38.18 (a) The parties agree that any arbitration arising out of this agreement shall be made by a single arbitrator to be mutually agreed upon by the parties.
- (b) If mutual agreement is not reached by the parties to choose a single arbitrator within thirty (30) calendar days from the date that either party receives notification of a wish to proceed to arbitration, the Minister of Labour shall be asked to appoint an arbitrator. This appointment shall be accepted by both parties.
- 38.19 (a) The arbitrator (agreed or appointed under Article 38.18)
- (i) has all of the powers granted to arbitrators under the Canada Labour Code Part I, in addition to any powers which are contained in this Agreement, and
- (ii) shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a written decision and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any Employee affected by it.
- (b) The award of the arbitrator shall be signed by him or her and copies thereof shall be transmitted to the parties to the dispute within three (3) months of the hearing.
- (c) The arbitrator shall not have the authority to alter or amend any of the provisions of this Agreement, nor to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, nor to render any decision contrary to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, nor to increase or decrease wages.
- (d) The Employer and the Union shall each pay one half of the remuneration and expenses of the arbitrator and each party shall bear its own expenses of every such arbitration.
- (e) Where a party has failed to comply with any of the terms of the decision of the arbitrator, either party or an Employee affected by the decision may, after the expiration of fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of the receipt of the decision or the date provided in the decision for compliance, whichever is later, file in the Federal Court a copy of the order or decision, exclusive of the reasons therefore.

- (f) In addition to the powers granted to arbitrators under the Canada Labour Code, Part I, the Arbitrator may determine that the Employee has been discharged for other than proper cause and he or she may:
 - (i) direct the Employer to reinstate the Employee and pay to the Employee a sum equal to his or her wages lost by reason of his or her discharge, or such less sum as in the opinion of the arbitrator is fair and reasonable;
 - or
 - (ii) make such order as he or she considers fair and reasonable having regard to the terms of this Agreement.

Mediation

38.20 Subject to mutual agreement of the parties a mediator may be appointed to assist in the resolution of a grievance at any step in the grievance procedure. The mediator will be selected by the parties and the party requesting mediation will be responsible for the mediators expenses.

Article 39 Housing & Settlement Allowance

39.01 The Employer agrees to pay each Employee a housing and settlement allowance with the exception that part-time employees are only entitled to a pro-rated amount of the settlement portion of the housing and settlement allowance and the full housing portion as outlined in 39.02. All casual employees are only entitled a pro-rated portion of the housing and settlement allowance as outlined in 39.02. Students shall not be entitled to this benefit.

39.02 The Housing and Settlement Allowance shall be as follows:

- 40.05 (a) The Employer shall provide, at no expense to the Employee, appropriate transportation to the nearest physician or medical facility, and from there to his or her home or place of work depending on the decision of the attending physician, when such services are immediately required for an Employee as a result of injury or serious ailment occurring in the workplace.
- (b) If the Employee receives compensation from any source for expenses incurred on the Employee's behalf by the Employer with regard to transportation referred to in subsection (a), the Employer may recover from the Employee the amount of that compensation.

Occupational Health Examinations

- 40.06 (a) Where the Employer requires an Employee to undergo an occupational health examination by a qualified practitioner in Iqaluit, chosen by the Employee, the examination shall be conducted at no expense to the Employee and the Employee shall be granted the necessary leave with pay to attend the examination.
- (b) Where there is no qualified practitioner in Iqaluit, the Employer shall assume the Employee's travel expenses for the conduct of the occupational health examination in another community by the most economical means possible, and the Employee shall be granted the necessary leave with pay to attend the examination.

- (c) All occupational health information, forms and records transmitted or used in connection with these occupational health examinations will be conveyed to the Employee involved and maintained in a medical confidential status and retained within the medical community.

Work Environment

- 40.07 The work environment will be monitored and where a problem is perceived by the Health and Safety Committee, it shall be investigated and remedied as appropriate by the Employer, subject to the approval of the Safety Officer.

Protective Clothing and Equipment

- 40.08 (a) The Employer shall provide and pay for all reasonable protective devices, clothing and other equipment necessary to properly protect Employees from injury and unhealthy conditions in the performance of their work.
- (b) The Employer shall make provisions for the proper cleaning and maintenance of all safety equipment, devices and clothing at no cost to the Employees.

Hazard Identification

- 40.09 The Employer shall identify in writing in both appropriate languages, new or currently used chemicals, substances or equipment present in the work area including hazards or suspected hazards, precautions and antidotes to be taken or procedures to be followed following exposure.

Investigations and Reports of Hazards and Injuries

- 40.10 (a) The Health and Safety Committee shall cause such investigations as may be necessary to determine the circumstances surrounding work injuries and health hazards.
- (b) Reports of these investigations, referred to in subsection (a), shall be submitted to the Health and Safety Committee, the Union Representative and the Employer who may request further information from the person(s) who conducted the investigation.
- (c) A report of an injury received by the Employer shall be copied to the Union.
- (d) A report of an injury received by the Union shall be copied to the Employer.

Safety Act and its Regulations

- 40.11 The Employer shall make available to Employees a current copy of the Safety Act and its Regulations.

Employee Assistance Program

- 40.12 The Employer shall make available a recognized Employee Assistance Program (EAP) to all employees.

Article 41
Joint Union Management Committee

- 41.01 The Employer and the Union acknowledge the mutual benefits of joint consultation and agree to maintain a Joint Union Management Committee which will have as its objective meaningful consultation on matters of mutual interest, except issues that are the subject of a grievance.
- 41.02 The Committee shall consist of two (2) Union and two (2) Employer representatives and will meet at least monthly, unless the Employer and the Union agree otherwise.
- 41.03 Minutes of every meeting will be prepared and distributed by the Committee during working hours prior to the next meeting, at which the minutes will be presented for review and adoption, and after which will be mailed to the Union's office in Iqaluit and posted in the workplace for at least twelve (12) months.
- 41.04 Time spent in Committee meetings and performing authorized Committee work is deemed to be time worked.
- 41.05 The Joint Union Management Committee has no authority to amend this Agreement.

Article 42
Ultimate Removal Assistance

Effective December 15, 2017, the terms of Articles 42.01 to 42.08 inclusively apply only to employees who are members of the Bargaining Unit on December 15, 2017, except as noted.

New Articles 42.09 to 42.12 apply to Bargaining Unit employees other than casual or part-time who are hired after December 15, 2017. All such Employees other than casual and part-time will be entitled to the benefits of new Articles 42.09 to 42.12.

42.01 An Employee who terminates his or her employment and certifies his or her intention of leaving Nunavut or moving to another community within Nunavut, will be entitled to Ultimate Removal Assistance, as outlined in this Article.

42.02 All Employees other than casual and part-time will be entitled to the benefits of this Article 42.

Entitlement

42.03 (a) Subject to sub-clauses Error! Reference source not found. and Error! Reference source not found., the percentage of approved expenses payable as ultimate removal assistance varies with the length of continuous employment as follows:

Length of Service	Entitlement
less than 2 years	none
2 years but less than 3 years	50% of approved costs to eligible destination
3 years but less than 4 years	75% of approved costs to eligible destination
4 years but less than 20 years	100% of approved costs to eligible destination
20 years or more	100% of approved costs to any destination in Canada

(b) A laid-off Employee shall be eligible to one hundred percent (100%) of approved costs to eligible destination regardless of length of service.

(c) The Dependants of a deceased Employee shall be eligible to one hundred percent (100%) of approved costs to eligible destination regardless of length of service (including the costs of shipping the body).

42.04 (a) The amount of approved expenses payable for ultimate removal assistance is subject to weight limits as follows:

In furnished accommodation:

Employee without dependants	maximum 681 kg
Employee and spouse	maximum 1362 kg
Employee, spouse, dependants	maximum 1815 kg

Not in furnished accommodation:

Employee without dependants	maximum 1815 kg

Employee and spouse	maximum 3630 kg
Employee, spouse, dependants	maximum 6804 kg

- (b) Coverage includes crating charges and the limits shown in subsection (a) include the weight of crates.

42.05 In addition to shipment of effects, ultimate removal assistance covers the travel expenses of an Employee and his or her dependants, as follows:

- (a) cost of travel by commercial carrier to eligible destination, including accommodation, meal and incidental expenses (at rates specified for duty travel) only where airline schedules require an overnight stopover; or
- (b) for travel other than air travel, the equivalent of economy airfare, with no additional expenses for any stopover.

42.06 For the purposes of this Article,

- (a) “eligible destination” means the point of recruitment or the actual new domicile, travel to whichever destination costs less;

and

- (b) "point of recruitment" for local hires means the Employer's choice of Montreal or Ottawa.

Limitations

42.07 The following limitations shall apply to the ultimate removal assistance:

- (a) Only one (1) entitlement will be paid per household;
- (b) Removal must be made by the most economical and direct means available.
- (c) Payment will not be made for meals, lodging, or any other expenses except as provided under Article 42.05;
- (d) In the case of an Employee who has received vacation travel assistance in the same six (6) month period in which the ultimate removal assistance is claimed, the approved total of removal assistance will be reduced by the amount of the vacation travel assistance received.
- (e) The Employer will not pay ultimate removal assistance to an Employee who receives duplicate assistance from another employment source.
- (f) An Employee must move from his or her community of residence in order to receive ultimate removal assistance and the move must take place within thirty (30) days of termination, except with the approval of the Employer in extenuating circumstances; and

- (g) An Employee who has been declared to have abandoned his or her position shall not be entitled to ultimate removal assistance.
- (h) Claims must be substantiated by bona fide freight bills.

Claims Procedures

- 42.08 (a) To claim ultimate removal assistance, the Employee must submit an application, on the basis of which the Employer will calculate the Employee's entitlement and will requisition airline tickets and movers as necessary.
- (b) Where an Employee chooses to drive to his or her destination:
- (i) all claims must be accounted for;
 - (ii) on termination, sixty percent (60%) of the equivalent economy airfare will be paid;
 - (iii) on reaching his or her final destination, the Employee should submit to the Employer the claim portion of his or her travel authorization, his or her expense claim form and gas or other substantiating receipts indicating arrival at his or her destination;
 - (iv) when the claim forms have been processed, a cheque for the remaining forty percent (40%) of the equivalent economy airfare and any other approved expenses shall be sent to the Employee at his or her forwarding address.
- (c) An Employee who has eligible stopover expenses shall submit a claim form with receipts in the usual way.

The following Articles apply to Bargaining Unit employees other than casual or part-time who are hired after December 15, 2017.

- 42.09 An Employee without Dependents shall receive a taxable ultimate removal assistance benefit of up to $2,000 for the Employee to move their household effects; this amount shall be prorated in accordance with years of service under Article 42.03. The employee shall also receive one applicable lowest airfare to an eligible destination as defined under 42.06.
- 42.10 After two years of continuous service, an Employee with Dependents shall receive a taxable ultimate removal assistance benefit of $5,000 for the Employee to move their household effects, plus lowest applicable airfare for the Employee and each Dependent to an eligible destination as defined under 42.06.
- 42.11 To claim ultimate removal assistance under Article 42.09 and 42.10, the Employee must submit an application on the basis of which the Employer will calculate the Employee's entitlement.

- 42.12 The limitations under Article 42.07 (a), 42.07 (d), 42.07 (e), 42.07 (f) and 42.07 (g) continue to apply to ultimate removal assistance under Articles 42.09 and 42.10.

Article 43

Relocation Expenses on Initial Appointment

- 43.01 Effective December 15, 2017, the Employer will reimburse an Employee without Dependents up to $2,000 for reasonable expenses incurred in moving to Iqaluit on initial appointment, plus one applicable lowest airfare.
- 43.02 Effective December 15, 2017, the Employer will reimburse an Employee with Dependents up to $5,000 for reasonable expenses incurred in moving to Iqaluit on initial appointment, plus applicable lowest airfare for the Employee and Dependents.
- 43.03 A newly hired Employee shall submit his or her travel and expense claims with supporting receipts, to the Employer within thirty (30) days of his or her arrival in Iqaluit.
- 43.04 The Employer shall pay all claims for travel and removal expenses on initial appointment within six (6) weeks of receipt of claims from the new Employee.
- 43.05 If an Employee receives relocation assistance with the Employer and remains employed with the Employer for less than two (2) years, the Employer may, at its discretion, recover from the Employee all relocation assistance paid on his or her behalf on a pro-rated basis.

Article 44

Duty Travel

44.01 An Employee who is authorized to travel on the Employer's business will be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred as set out in this Article.

Entitlement

44.02 (a) The entitlements set out hereunder are subject to limitations in Articles 44.05, 44.07 and 44.08.

(b) Where the expenses for meals, lodging and other items cannot be kept within the entitlements laid down in this Article, the claimant must explain the circumstances on his or her claim and justify actual expenses by receipts.

Transportation

44.03 The cost of transportation is authorized as follows:

(a) Economy air (Employees may be entitled to upgrade to the next highest class if proof is provided that the economy air was not available on a required flight);

(b) Subject to Article 44.10(b), where the use of a privately owned car is authorized, an allowance equivalent to the rates paid to Government of Canada Employees per kilometre for travel within Nunavut and elsewhere.

(c) Rented or hired cars, where this is the most reasonable or economical means of travel, provided that an Employee renting a vehicle shall ensure that the rental charge includes any item for cost of insurance coverage for damage to the vehicle and against all liability.

Accommodation

44.04 (a) Commercial accommodation expenses must be accompanied by receipts:

(i) Not exceeding fifteen (15) calendar days: Employees may be reimbursed for actual costs of authorized accommodation. Where possible Employees shall use hotels which provide special rates for City of Iqaluit Employees, provided that the Employer has issued the Employee with a municipal identification card to be used for duty travel.

(ii) In excess of fifteen (15) calendar days: Normally the Employee will be expected to make appropriate arrangements for suitable rental accommodation at weekly or monthly rates. This should be arranged prior to the start of the period in travel status or shortly after arrival.

- (b) Non-Commercial Accommodation. Where an Employee makes private arrangements for overnight accommodation, the Employee may claim seventy-five dollars ($75.00) for each night.

Meals and Incidental Expenses

44.05 Expenses claimed for meals and incidental expenses are for the cost of meals consumed and for such incidental expenses as tips, etc.

- (a) For periods of duty travel not exceeding fifteen (15) calendar days: A per diem rate for meals and incidental expenses equivalent to the rates paid to Government of Canada Employees will be paid. Where an Employee is in travel status for part of a day only, that portion of the per diem may be claimed by the Employee.

If meals are provided as part of the cost of transportation, they cannot be claimed by the Employee.

These rates will be adjusted as the Federal Rates are changed.

Note: Where the actual cost of meals and services exceeds the maximum allowance and where the reason for this excess can be justified, and the expenses supported by receipts (cost of meals is not to be included on hotel bill), the Employee will be reimbursed for the actual expense incurred.

Where receipts cannot be provided, reimbursement will be made for the meal allowance outlined above.

- (b) For periods of duty travel in excess of fifteen (15) calendar days: Except in communities where housekeeping units or reasonable room and board are not available, when travel status extends beyond fifteen (15) calendar days in one (1) location, the amount claimable for meals shall be reduced to fifteen dollars ($15.00) per day inclusive for all days in excess of fifteen (15) calendar days.

Other Expenses

44.06 Employees may be reimbursed for:

- (a) official telephone calls - local and long distance telephone calls of an official nature providing that an explanation is provided;
- (b) personal telephone calls - where an Employee is required to remain absent from his or her home over a weekend, and has been on continuous travel status for two (2) or more days preceding the weekend, he or she shall be reimbursed for a personal long distance call not to exceed five (5) minutes (to be supported by receipts where available);

- (c) baggage - for storage and excess baggage charges where incurred in the performance of duty and where a satisfactory explanation is provided;
- (d) taxis - the use of taxis must be explained except where the purpose is self-evident. Taxis should not be authorized for repeated trips between the same place where convenient public transportation is available;
- (e) laundry – after two (2) consecutive days on duty travel, a maximum of two dollars ($2.00) per day for each subsequent day supported by receipts in all cases;
- (f) wages – payment of casual wages for service personnel where a satisfactory explanation is provided, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) supported by receipts in all cases.
- (g) child care expenses – an Employee may be reimbursed a maximum of thirty-five dollars ($35) per day per child, upon provision of receipts, if the Employee, due to the requirement to travel on behalf of the Employer, incurs child care expenses which exceed those that would normally have been incurred.

Limitations

- 44.07 No items of "other expenses" or transportation in excess of five dollars ($5.00), will be reimbursed unless supported by receipts.
- 44.08 (a) The Employer shall authorize duty travel by signing the prescribed form before the start of the trip.
- (b) The signed form referred to in sub-clause (a) is to be submitted as a request for an advance of travel expenses where required.
- (c) If an Employee submits a request for an advance of travel expenses not later than fifteen (15) working days before the trip commences, the Employer shall issue an advance of funds before the Employee departs.
- (d) The signed form referred to in sub-clause (a) shall be returned to the Employee with the advance of funds.
- (e) Within fifteen (15) working days of completion of the duty travel, the Employee shall submit a claim for expenses on the pre-authorized form for approval by the Employer, together with a personal cheque to cover any amount by which the travel advance exceeds the total of the claim. If the Employer owes the Employee money pursuant to the claim, the amount owing will be paid within fifteen (15) working days.

- (f) No Employee is allowed to have more than one (1) travel advance outstanding at any one time, unless circumstances indicate the need for two (2). Failure to comply with this regulation will result in automatic payroll deductions being initiated for the total amount of the advance.

44.09 The following expenses will not be allowed:

- (a) the purchase of briefcases, fountain pens, tools or any other supplies or equipment;
- (b) the rental of television or radio receiving sets, where not included in the charge for lodgings;
- (c) the purchase of articles of a personal nature, such as baggage, clothing, etc.
- (d) except as provided for in Article 44.06, the cost of telephone, telegraph, cable, or radio messages of a personal nature, other than in the case of unavoidable delay in arrival home;
- (e) expenses of any kind incurred during stopovers for personal reasons or during periods of leave, with or without pay;
- (f) any losses of money or of personal belongings.
- (g) Any costs for alcoholic beverages.

Entitlement

- 44.10 (a) Subject to the Employer's approval, payment shall be made for transportation in Iqaluit, of the Employee in the following circumstances:
- (i) for a taxi between home and place of duty where the Employee is required to work after normal hours and circumstances such as the combination of late hours, weather and distance make it unreasonable to use the Employee's normal means of getting to or from work;
 - (ii) where transportation is necessary for such reasons as the carrying of bulky documents or because of the time factor and the method chosen is the most economical under the circumstances.
- (b) Where applicable, expense rates will be adjusted as the Federal rates are changed.

Article 45

Leave for Training Purposes

- 45.01 (a) Leave without pay to take advanced or supplementary professional or technical training of one academic year or less may be granted to Employees upon the approval of the CAO. Such determination to be made in a fair and reasonable manner.
- (b) The granting of such leave shall be based on an appraisal of the present and future job requirements and the qualifications of the Employee applying for the leave and shall be granted only to meet the identified needs of the Employer.
- 45.02 Where a request for leave under Article 45.01 has been submitted by an Employee, the Employer shall, within sixty (60) calendar days from the submission of the request, advise, the Employee whether the request has been approved or denied.
- 45.03 Full or partial financial assistance in respect of salary, tuition, travelling and other expenses may be granted during leave granted under Article 45.01:
- (a) where the Employee has become technically obsolete and requires retraining to satisfactorily carry out assigned work;
- (b) where the courses are required to keep the Employee abreast of new knowledge and techniques in the Employee's field of work; or
- (c) where qualified persons cannot be recruited to carry out essential work and it is necessary to train present Employees.
- 45.04 (a) Subject to prior approval by the Employer, when an Employee provides the Employer with evidence of having successfully completed a course, the Employer shall reimburse the Employee for tuition fees paid by the Employee with respect to the course if the course is of value to the Employee's work and does not require the Employee to be absent from duty.
- (b) If an Employee fails to complete any training course without reasonable justification, the Employee will refund all costs expended by the Employer for the training course, including any travel, accommodation and related expenses. Prior to repayment, a repayment schedule will be mutually agreed upon.
- 45.05 Under this Article, leave with full or partial financial assistance in respect of salary will carry with it the obligation for the Employee to return to work upon the expiration of the leave, to work for the Employer for a period equivalent to the leave. In the event that the Employee does not return to work from such leave or from a training course authorized and subsidized by the Employer without just cause, all costs associated with the Employee's attendance at such training and wages paid during the course of same will be recovered in full from any wages, vacation pay or benefits due to the Employee as at the date of the Employee's failure to return to work.

Article 46 Civil Liability

- 46.01 If an action or proceeding is brought against any Employee or former Employee covered by this Agreement for an alleged tort committed by the Employee in the performance of duties, then:
- (a) The Employee or former Employee, upon being served with any legal process, or upon receipt of any action or proceeding as referred to in this Article, being commenced against him or her shall advise the CAO of any such notification or legal process;
 - (b) The Employer shall pay:
 - (i) any damages or costs awarded against any such Employee in any such action or proceedings and all legal fees, and/or
 - (ii) any sum required to be paid by such Employee in connection with the settlement of any claim made against such Employee provided the conduct of the Employee which gave rise to the action did not constitute a gross disregard or neglect of his/her duty as an Employee.
 - (c) No Employee shall enter into any settlement agreement without the express written authority of the Employer and if an Employee does enter into such settlement agreement without proper authorization the Employee agrees to waive any rights provided to him/her under this Article.
 - (d)
 - (i) Subject to subparagraph (ii), upon notification to the Employer by the Employee in accordance with paragraph (a), the Employer and the Employee shall forthwith meet and appoint mutually agreeable legal counsel.
 - (ii) Should the Employer and the Employee be unable to agree on the choice of legal counsel, the Employer shall unilaterally appoint legal counsel, with whom the Employee agrees to cooperate fully.
 - (e) If, upon adjudication of a matter arising out of this Article there is a finding that the Employee was not acting in the performance of his/her duties at the time of the alleged tort then the Employee shall be indebted to the Employer for an amount equal to the expenses incurred by the Employer on behalf of the Employee pursuant to this Article and such amount shall be recovered from the Employee. An appropriate recovery schedule will be mutually agreed upon.

- (f) All of the foregoing shall be subject to compliance with all applicable insurance requirements, including, but not restricted to, Clauses in Appendix A of the Nunavut Association of Municipalities Insurance Policy.

Article 47

Suspension and Discipline

- 47.01 The Employer shall have the right to suspend with or without pay and/or discharge an Employee for just and sufficient cause. Prior to suspending or discharging an Employee, the Employer shall examine several factors such as the seriousness of the offence, the Employee's length of service, and other relevant mitigating factors.
- 47.02 When an Employee is to be suspended or discharged from duty, the Employer shall notify the Employee and the Union in writing of the reasons for such suspension or discharge.
- 47.03 When an Employee is required to attend a meeting where a disciplinary decision concerning the Employee is to be taken by the Employer or a representative of the Employer, the Employee is entitled to request and to have a representative of the Union attend the meeting. The meeting should be scheduled to enable a Union Representative to attend.
- 47.04 When an Employee is suspended without pay for a period of more than thirty (30) days or is discharged, a grievance may be initiated by the Employee and/or Union at the Third Level as per the Grievance procedure set out in Article 38, within the time limits specified.

Article 48

Severance Pay upon Termination of Employment

- 48.01 An Employee who resigns after four (4) or more years of continuous employment is entitled to Severance Pay on resignation in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of years of service} \times \text{weekly rate of pay on resignation}}{2}$$

The maximum Severance Pay grantable under this Clause is 13 weeks pay, less the number of weeks of any previous Severance Pay granted.

Retirement and Termination for Health Reasons

- 48.02 Where an Employee retires from service with the Employer or where an Employee's employment is terminated as a result of a recommendation made to the Employer that the Employee is incapable of performing his or her duties because of chronically poor health, the Employee shall be paid Severance Pay in accordance with the following formula:

Number of completed
years of continuous service X Weekly rate of pay on termination

The maximum Severance Pay grantable under this Clause is 30 weeks pay, less the number of weeks of any previous Severance Pay granted.

- 48.03 An Employee, who is discharged for cause or who has abandoned his/her position, shall not be entitled to Severance Pay.

Article 49 Vacancies

- 49.01 If a position becomes vacant at short notice, the Employer shall make every reasonable effort to provide temporary coverage to avoid changes to approved leave.
- 49.02 When the Employer wishes to keep a position vacant for any reason for longer than two (2) months, the Union shall be advised, in writing, of such decision and the reason for such decision. It is understood where such deliberate vacancies are created by the Employer, they shall not be used as a basis for denial of leave for operational reasons, or for changes to approved leave.
- 49.03 Every vacancy for a position expected to be of more than six (6) months duration and every newly created position shall be posted on the Union notice Board. The job posting shall state the job classification, rate of pay, shifts, required qualifications for the position and the closing date for applications. An Employee who wishes to apply for a posted position shall do so before the closing date as advertised on the posting. All vacancies shall be advertised internally for one (1) week prior to the external advertising.
- 49.04 All employees who apply for a job posting shall be considered to be candidates in the selection process and shall be entitled to have their qualifications for the position(s) assessed by the Employer. The qualifications of the candidates will be evaluated against the posted qualifications for the position(s). The applicant with the most seniority meeting the required posted qualifications shall be awarded the position. Where none of the candidates meet the qualifications and requirements of the position(s), the Employer may cancel the posting, re-post the position, or recruit from outside to fill the position(s). The candidate(s) in the Bargaining Unit shall be advised of the results of the competition as soon as practicable after the selection is made.
- 49.05 Upon completion of a competition and when a candidate has been offered and has accepted a position, the Human Resource Department shall notify all other candidates, in writing, who is the successful candidate in the competition. Should any of the unsuccessful candidates have any queries as to why they were unsuccessful, they may contact the Human Resource Department, who will then answer any questions regarding that particular applicant's candidacy.

- 49.06 No Employee shall be transferred to a position outside the Bargaining Unit without his or her consent.
- 49.07 No Employee shall be transferred to another position within the Bargaining Unit without his/her consent.
- 49.08 New Employees shall not be hired when there are Employees on lay off who are qualified and willing to perform the job.
- 49.09 Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Employer from hiring persons outside the Bargaining Unit.
- 49.10 Employees on initial probation shall not be eligible to apply on job competitions.

Article 52
Vehicles – Electrical Cost

- 52.01 An Employee who is on standby and is required to take a staff vehicle home shall receive, upon submission of an expense claim, the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) per day during the period December 1 to March 31 to offset the electrical cost associated with plugging in the vehicle, where the Employee is responsible for paying any cost of electricity.

Article 53
Bilingual Bonus

- 53.01 Any Employee who is required to speak a second official language of Nunavut shall be paid an annual bilingual bonus of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) in biweekly instalments calculated on a regular hourly basis.
- 53.02 The City will consult with the Union prior to designating a position as bilingual.
- 53.03 Any Employee required by the City to take training in any official language or official Aboriginal language of Nunavut shall receive time off with pay and a refund of tuition fees.

Article 54
Trades and Maintenance

Wash-up Time

- 54.01 Labour and Trades Employees, Equipment Operations Employees, and Maintenance Employees shall be permitted paid wash-up time to a maximum of ten (10) minutes prior to the conclusion of each shift. In unusual circumstances this period may be extended by the Employee's Supervisor to a maximum of fifteen (15) minutes.

Tools

- 54.02 (a) The Employer shall provide to certified trades Employees and apprentices tools and equipment necessary for the Employee to carry out his or her job responsibilities. Any loss or destruction of tools or equipment shall be reported to the Employer immediately upon such loss or destruction occurring for replacement by the Employer.

Protective Clothing

- 54.03 Articles of protective clothing are to be worn only when Employees are on duty; to and from work; and while on stand-by. The responsibility of maintaining protective and uniform articles rests with the Employee.

- 54.04 The Employer will replace lost or damaged protective articles and uniform articles, but if the loss or damage is wilful, the Employee may be subject to an assessed charge not to exceed the replacement cost of the lost or damaged article.
- 54.05 Where an Employee terminates employment or transfers to another position, the Employee shall be given the option of purchasing selected protective and uniform articles at a reasonable price or at no cost whatever, based on the age and condition of the selected articles.
- 54.06 The Employer shall provide lockable lockers to Employees as required.

Article 55
Apprentices

55.01 The terms and conditions for the engagement of Employees as apprentices are agreed as follows:

- (a) The Apprenticeship, Trade and Occupations Certification Act and pursuant regulations shall apply to all apprentices. A copy of the applicable regulations shall be supplied to each apprentice upon appointment.
- (b) The recognized Apprenticeship Training Programs shall be those listed in the Trade Designation Order pursuant to the Apprenticeship, Trade and Occupations Certification Act.
- (c) Pay increases shall not be automatic but will be based upon levels of certification issued pursuant to the Apprenticeship, Trade and Occupations Certification Act and shall be effective from the date of certification.
- (d) Apprentice rates will be based on a percentage of the Journeyman Level 5, Step 6 rate as follows:

4 year training programs
year 1	70%
year 2	75%
year 3	80%
year 4	85%

3 year training programs
year 1	70%
year 2	75%
year 3	80%

2 year training program
year 1	70%
year 2	75%

1 year training program
year 1	70%

- (e) The Employer will pay the following expenses of the apprentice while attending trade courses:
 - (i) one hundred percent (100%) of current wages;
 - (ii) Telephone calls for the purposes of arranging accommodations beforehand or for calling the Employee's headquarters while on course;
 - (iii) Personal telephone calls in the amount of one (1) call per week, not to exceed fifteen (15) minutes each.
- (f) Apprentices shall be entitled to the benefits and terms and conditions of employment of this Collective Agreement while working and while on course.
- (g) Where an apprentice fails after two (2) attempts to successfully complete a trade training course, a recommendation may be made to the Supervisor of Apprenticeship, Trades and Occupations Certification to cancel his or her contract and the apprenticeship may be terminated, but the Employer will make every reasonable effort to continue to employ that Employee elsewhere in the Employer's organization.
- (h) Upon successful completion by an Employee of an Apprenticeship Program, the Employer will make every reasonable effort to provide the Apprentice with a permanent full time position in the area of his or her trade. All time spent as an Apprentice shall count towards continuous employment.

Apprentice Training

- 55.02 The parties to this Agreement recognize a need for training and apprentice positions particularly in the Department of Public Works. To this end the Joint Union Management Committee will discuss the creation of trainee positions and further apprenticeship programs with a view to upgrading present Employees.

Article 56 Credit for Previous Experience

- 56.01 Wage rates for new and rehired Employees shall be established as follows, as applicable:
- (a) Employees who have previously been employed by the Employer shall receive one hundred percent (100%) credit for previous experience in a similar position.
 - (b) Where an Employee has gained related experience elsewhere, his or her related experience shall be taken into consideration by the Employer when determining the Employee's starting salary.

Article 57

Adverse Weather Conditions

- 57.01 Subject to established Municipal "Blizzard Procedures", Employees will be paid should they be advised not to report to work because of adverse weather conditions.
- 57.02 When an Employee reports to work but is unable to perform his or her duties due to weather conditions and is, therefore, not required to work, the Employee shall be paid in full as though he or she had worked regular hours for the day.
- 57.03 The Employer agrees to pay Employees who report to work late as a result of difficulty in getting to work due to adverse weather conditions within Iqaluit, including Apex, as though they had reported on time.
- 57.04 Where an Employee is unable to report to work as a result of adverse weather conditions within the municipal boundaries, the Employee shall be paid as if he/she had worked regular hours for the day. This payment shall not include scheduled overtime that was not worked because of adverse weather conditions.

Article 58

Outside Employment

- 58.01 (a) Where an Employee wishes to carry on any business or employment outside his/her regularly scheduled hours of duty the Employee shall notify the Employer in writing of the nature of such business or employment and shall not commence such business or employment without the consent of the Employer. The Employee shall interpret no written response within ten (10) working days as consent.
- (b) When the Employer does not consent to an Employee engaging in a business or employment outside his/her regularly scheduled hours of duty, the Employer shall notify the Employee in writing, advising the reason for withholding such permission and of recourse that may be taken through the grievance procedure.
- 58.02 Employees are prohibited from carrying on any business or employment outside their regularly scheduled hours of duty when such business or employment is such that:
- (a) a conflict may develop between the duties of the Employee's regular work and his/her outside interests;
- (b) certain knowledge and information available only to personnel of the Employer, place the Employee in a position where he/she can exploit the knowledge or information for personal gain.

58.03 An Employee shall not be involved in a business which requires the use of Town facilities, vehicles or housing as an element of that business.

Article 59 Casual Employment

59.01 (a) The length of casual employment for an Employee shall not exceed four (4) months of continuous employment.

(b) Where the Employer expects the period of temporary employment to be in excess of four (4) months, the Employee shall be appointed on a term basis and shall be entitled to all provisions of the Collective Agreement from the first day of his or her employment.

59.02 A casual Employee shall upon commencement of employment be notified, in writing, of the expected termination of his/her employment. The Union shall be notified, by copy of such notification, where any casual Employee is expected to be required to work for more than twenty (20) consecutive working days.

59.03 The Employer shall ensure that a series of casual Employees will not be employed in lieu of establishing either a permanent or term position or filling a vacant position.

59.04 The Employer shall ensure that casual Employees will not be employed to avoid paying overtime to permanent or term Employees. The Employer may use casual employees to cover-off permanent or term employees who are taking Time in Lieu under Article 19.05(c) or who are taking a Casual Leave under Article 23.02.

Article 60 Re-Opener of Agreement

60.01 This Agreement may be amended by mutual consent.

Mutual Discussions

60.02 The Employer and the Union acknowledge the mutual benefits to be derived from dialogue between the parties and are prepared to discuss matters of common interest.

Article 61

Duration and Renewal

- 61.01 The term of this Agreement shall be from January 1, 2016 until December 31, 2019. The pay schedules contained in Appendix "A" shall apply from January 1, 2016. All other provisions of this Agreement take effect on the date of ratification unless another date is expressed therein.
- 61.02 Notwithstanding Article 61.01, the provisions of this Agreement, including the provisions for the adjustment of disputes in Article 38, shall remain in effect during the negotiations for its renewal, and until either a new collective Agreement becomes effective, or until the provisions of Section 89(1) of the Canada Labour Code have been met.
- 61.03 Either party to this Agreement may, within the period of four (4) months immediately preceding the date of expiration of the term of this Agreement, by written notice, require the other party to this Agreement to commence collective bargaining with a view to the conclusion, renewal or revision of this Agreement in accordance with Section 49(1) of the Canada Labour Code.
- 61.04 Where notice to bargain collectively has been given under Article 61.03, the Employer shall not alter the rates of pay or any term or condition of employment or any right or privilege of the employees, or any right or privilege of the Union until a renewal or revision of this Agreement has been concluded, or until the provisions of Section 89(1) of the Canada Labour Code have been met, unless the Union consents to the alteration of such a term or condition, or such a right or privilege.

Re: Public Works Employees (Water and Sewage Truck Drivers and Helpers and Other Public Works Employees, exclusive of clerical staff)

As a result of the changes to the 1999 – 2003 Collective Agreement, the Employer may schedule shifts between 6:00 A.M. and midnight for Employees whose hours of work are governed by Articles 24.01(a) and 24.01(b).

An Employee who is employed as of June 9, 2001, and whose hours of work are governed by 24.01(a) and 24.01(b), shall not be required to work any shift other than 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Should any of these Employees choose to work a shift other than 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. , they will only be entitled to return to an 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. shift if there is a vacancy in that shift. If a vacancy exists in the 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. shift, it will be filled by the Employee who was employed as of June 9, 2001, with the most seniority who wishes to work that shift.

Nothing in this letter requires the Employer to maintain 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. shifts if they become vacant.
